What is an uninterruptable power supply system (UPS)?

2.1 An uninterruptable power supply system (UPS) is defined as a device which for a specific period of time supplies continuous power to radio equipment independent of any power failures in the ship's main or emergency source of electric energy.<sup>2</sup> rechargeable accumulator batteries, complying with the requirements of annex 1.

Why are uninterruptable power supplies important?

In times of increasing relevance of decentral power supplies and decreasing reliability of the power supply networks, uninterruptable power supplies (UPS) become more and more important.

Why should a ups be protected from a short-circuit?

The UPS should be so designed and constructed that it is protected against damage resulting from disconnecting the batteries or, with the battery disconnected, short-circuiting the UPS battery connections. If this protection is provided by electronic means it should automatically reset following removal of the open or short-circuit conditions.

Can a modern UPS system be used in an explosion-protected area?

R. STAHL, with its more than 80 years of experience in explosion protection, is able to transfer the requirements of a modern UPS system into systems, which are suitable for use in explosion-protected areas.
